17th Trento Summer School

Intensive course on

Macroeconomic Coordination and Externalities

CEEL program on Adaptive Economic Dynamics

20 June - 01 July 2016

Venue: Hotel Villa Madruzzo – Trento - Italy

Summary of the Course

The School will analyze macroeconomic systems of interacting agents. It will discuss the emergence of externalities and instabilities and their implications for policy. Among the topics to be considered are: (i) links between economic structure and macroeconomic performance; (ii) aggregates as a means for understanding issues of stability and efficiency; (iii) macroeconomic effects of heterogeneity; (iv) learning and expectations; (v) financial intertemporalities and credit network effects; (vi) consequences for the propagation of macroeconomic imbalances and the intensity of systemic risk.

The course will analyze deep recessions and debt crises and the policies required to deal with them or prevent them.

During the School, students will also have the opportunity to present their own work and receive comments from faculty.

The ideal candidates for the School are PhD, students, post-doctoral fellows, and newly-recent researchers working in fields related to the School.

People interested in participating in the Summer School are encouraged to fill in the application form on the website:

https://weboapps.unitn.it/t10/api/en/Web/GHome/summerSchool/17769 and are asked to submit a curriculum vitae, a two-page essay describing their interest in Macroeconomic Coordination and Externalities, a course transcript from their PhD program, including advanced examinations passed, two letters of recommendation, and statements about their current or projected research, along with relevant research papers, if any.

Applications are due by 22 April 2016 (11:59 PM - GMT+1). Admission decisions will be announced by 10 May 2016. All applicants will be informed by email about the results.

The sessions will be held at Hotel Villa Madruzzo, Trento, Italy. All participants are required to stay for the entire duration of the event. Food and accommodation will be covered by the School (except for meals during the weekends) and participants will have to cover travel expenses.

Please direct logistical questions to the Summer School Secretary (summerSchool@unitn.it).
